He was asked by the society to be the author of the section on marriage in the commentary prepared on the revised Code of Canon Law. He was also asked by the Commission for the Authentic Interpretation of the Code of Canon Law of the Holy See to prepare the footnotes on marriage for the annotated edition of the Code of Canon Law.

Fr. Doyle has given lectures and seminars on various aspects of Church Law throughout the United States, Canada, England, Ireland, the Netherlands, Australia and New Zealand. These have included topics in the areas of matrimonial jurisprudence, procedural law, penal law, religious law, property law and the theology and canonical history of marriage. In 1986 he was the featured lecturer at the annual convention of the Canon Law Society of Australia and New Zealand.

In late 1984 he became involved with the issue of sexual abuse of children by Catholic clergy while serving at the Vatican Embassy. Since that time he has developed an expertise in the canonical and pastoral dimensions of this problem. He has worked with victims of abuse and their families, priests accused of abuse, bishops and superiors of religious institutes on this issue.

He has also been asked to assist entities of the institutional Church. He has developed policies and procedures for dealing with cases of sexual abuse by the clergy for dioceses and religious orders in the United States, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. The manual he wrote in 1985 together with Dr. Michael Peterson and Mr. Ray Mouton was used as an essential resource by the Canadian Bishops in the creation of their protocol for responding to clergy sex abuse, "From Pain to Hope," in 1992. He has also conducted research and has published articles on the spiritual damage caused by sexual abuse by clerics.

In the capacity as an expert in this area, he has delivered lectures and seminars for clergy and lay groups in the U.S., Canada, England, Belgium, the Netherlands, Northern Ireland, the Irish Republic, Australia and New Zealand. He has spoken to the State legislatures of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois, Colorado, California, Delaware, Maryland and the City Council of the District of Columbia on child protective legislation. He has also served and continues to serve as a consultant/court expert in cases of alleged sexual abuse by the clergy throughout the United States, Canada, Ireland, Israel and the United Kingdom. He has served as a consultant and expert witness to grand juries in several jurisdictions in the U.S. He has been a consultant to State and Federal legislative officials concerning changes in the law that would benefit victims of sexual abuse. He has also served as a consultant or expert witness to the investigative commissions established in the Republic of Ireland since 2002. He was an expert witness before the Cornwall Commission in Ontario in 2007. In 2010 he was asked to address the special commission of the Belgian Parliament investigating clergy sexual abuse. In 2013 he was asked to submit expert testimony to the Royal Commission of Inquiry in Australia. He has appeared in numerous documentaries on clergy sexual abuse produced in the U.S., Canada, Ireland, the U.K., Germany and France.

In 2013 he was asked by the Capuchin Franciscan Fathers of the Midwest Province in the United States to take an active role in conducting a complete review of the province's personnel files, past and present as well as a review of the manner with which the Capuchin Fathers had responded to every report of sexual abuse in the province's history. He and the other two reviewers completed their work and published an extensive and historic report in 2013. In April 2015 Father Doyle was asked to serve as a consultant to the Pontifical Commission for the Protection of Children. He accepted the invitation and has taken an active role as a consultant.

In recognition of his advocacy work for the victims of Catholic clergy sexual abuse Father Doyle received the Cavallo Award for Moral Courage in 1992, the Priest of Integrity Award from Voice of the Faithful in 2002 and the Isaac Hecker Award from the Paulist Fathers in 2003. In June of 2003 he was issued an official commendation from the Dominican Fathers for his "prophetic work in drawing attention to clergy sexual abuse and for advocating the rights of victims and abusers." In July 2005 he was awarded the "Community Champion Award" by the Civil Justice Foundation of the Association of Trial Lawyers of America. In July 2007 SNAP awarded him the Red Badge of Courage Award. In March 2013 he received the Salem Award from the Salem Foundation for Social Justice and Human Rights.
